10. Procedure for reconciliation of plagiarism reports

(1) If a draft thesis is found plagiarized and is reported to Departmental Research Committee then the Departmental Research Committee shall call the candidate to hear the candidate's view.

On hearing the candidate, the Departmental Research Committee shall submit its recommendations keeping in view of the following guidelines:

(a) The similarity between documents is within the limit (not more than 10%) for putting some original results in proper context and all original sources are correctly cited. The similarity is not of such nature which directly affects the original findings of research. No further action is required. Candidate may be permitted to submit the thesis.

(b) Self-plagiarism: "Regarding self plagiarism or cases where published work of the student is shown Plagiarism in the check, a certificate (Self Plagiarism Exclusion Certificate- Annexure-

III) has to be issued by the supervisor specifying and attaching the articles that have been published by the student from the thesis work. Only these articles should be excluded from the check, no other article of student or supervisor should not be excluded from the check."

Similarity contents are from candidate's previous published work without proper citation.

Candidate will be required to resubmit the work with proper citations. If the published work is co-authored by others, the researcher shall submit a consent letter from co-author(s) and publisher permitting him to use the work in his thesis.

(c) Low- level plagiarism: When the plagiarism is a result of negligence or without intent to cheat and the similarity between documents marginally outside the limit, the candidate may be allowed to resubmit the work with proper citations.

(d) Mid- level Plagiarism: Failure to cite proper citations, copying few paragraphs only. Intent to cheat is very low and may be due to lack of knowledge. The similarity between documents is outside the limit. The candidate may be allowed to resubmit the work with proper citation and with a warning not to repeat the mistake again otherwise registration in the programme will be cancelled.

(e) High- level plagiarism: Deliberate and planned attempt to copy the work done by someone else. Large amount of data taken from someone else's work, art work copying, source code copying etc. Intention to cheat is very clear. The candidate's registration may be cancelled.

(2) The thesis resubmitted as recommended by the Departmental Research Committee in view of clauses (1)(a) to (d), will be again placed before Departmental Research Committee and the candidate will also be required to be present to substantiate the necessary improvements made by him in the thesis.

11. Plagiarism reported after the of Award of Degree

(a) In case, any plagiarism is reported to the University when a Ph.D. degree has already been awarded, the Vice-Chancellor may constitute an expert committee to enquire into charges of plagiarism and the committee will submit its report with recommendations.

(b) The expert committee may give the opportunity of hearing to the concerned parties as it deems fit.
